

Inclusive Design within a Historic Environment

Your first CPD opportunity of 2009!

Tuesday 13 January 2009 -
9.30am to 1.00pm

The Hawksmoor Church of St Luke's 1733

This Grade 1 listed building was declared unsafe in 1959 but is now home to the London Symphony Orchestra's education centre. It is a vibrant, inclusive and sustainable venue that celebrates its past, embraces the present and looks to the future with relish.

Meet the architect, access consultant, conservation and design officers, access officer, building control officer, client and funder of this flagship development:

The keynote speech will be delivered by Richard Griffiths

(RIBA and Civic Trust Award winner); architect to Southwark Cathedral, St Albans Abbey, Sutton House and Lambeth Palace.

The event will take place within St Luke's main hall and you will have the opportunity to; tour the building and question those responsible for its regeneration in a case study seminar, network with like-minded professionals, and discuss with Heritage Lottery Fund representatives their policies and priorities for future funding.

Islington Council invites you to attend this unique conference to debate questions of inclusion, conservation and sustainable development.

Booking essential – discounts for early bird and group booking.

Application form attached – final closing date 15 Dec 2008.
