After-School Clubs and Childcare

Most schools run after-school clubs offering a varied menu of activities including: sports, arts, music, gardening, chess and other fun activities. Most schools also provide formal childcare with breakfast clubs which offer a good range of food, and after-school clubs. Some schools transfer children to voluntary providers for after-school childcare. For further details contact the school office, community venue or the Family Information Service 020 7527 5959.
