(Please note that many of the Community Centre Halls on Housing Estates listed in the section below also offer facilities for children's parties).

Community Centre Halls on Housing Estates

Many estate based community centres can be booked for private hires, local community activities and events.

The council is responsible for over 50 community facilities on estates throughout the borough. In most cases resident led management committees manage these community facilities. The centres are maintained and their management monitored by the Council's Communities Team. Community centres can be booked by local groups and charities and charges vary according to facilities available and the purpose of the booking.

The details of these community centres can be found on the Islington Council website at: <https://www.islington.gov.uk/housing/housing-offices-and-community-centres/community-centres-on-housing-estates>

The following venues are run independent of Islington Council.
